TO PREPARE FOR THE CAREER FAIR

- Prepare your résumé, have it reviewed by a Career Services advisor, and make several copies of the final version on résumé paper.
- Determine which organizations are attending.
- Develop a game plan. Make a list of employers to visit in order of importance to you; consider visiting with your lower priority organizations first to gain confidence before meeting with your top priority.
- Do not limit yourself to employers who you feel “fit” your major or industry preference; many employers hire for a number of positions that cross disciplines – for example, the non-profit organization that is seeking accountants or the accounting firm who is seeking marketing or English majors to develop and edit print materials.
- Prepare a "30-60 second commercial."
  - Introduce yourself (name, major, why you are talking to the organization).
  - Demonstrate what you know about the organization (research early).
  - Express interest in the organization and their opportunities and explain why you are interested.
  - Briefly describe what you have to offer: skills, leadership experiences, athletics, volunteer work, internships.
- Prepare questions to ask employers to show that you have thought of your career goals.
  - "I saw on the Career Services’ website that you have opportunities in your marketing department. Can you tell me more about the job duties of a marketing analyst?"
  - "I have gained a great deal of community engagement and service experience during my time at UR. Can you tell me more about how your company/organization engages with the local community?"
  - "What skills are most important for your Analyst position?"
  - "I have tailored my studies by combining psychology courses with leadership and business courses to better prepare for a career in human resources. Can you tell me more about possible HR opportunities with your organization?"

- Professional attire is appropriate. Dress as if for an interview.
  - Men: shirt, tie and preferably suit or sports coat
  - Women: dress suit, pants suit, or skirt suit
- Act professionally and demonstrate confidence.
  - Speak clearly and concisely and answer questions readily
  - Be open and honest; show enthusiasm and interest
  - Do not just go to get free stuff!

FOLLOW-UP

- Ask for a business card or contact name
- Inquire about the best method for following up with an organization
- It is important to TAKE INITIATIVE and FOLLOW UP with opportunities through phone calls and e-mails—do not wait for them to contact you if you are interested.
